RALLIED IN NINTH

Champions Gave Fine Exhibition of Hitting.

WON OUT FROM ST. LOUIS

Browns Knocked Gibson Out of Box in First Inning—Pittsburg Defeated New York Nationals, 4 to 1.

Boston, June 9.—The Champions gave another exhibition of opportune hitting in yesterday's game with the St. Louis team and stole the game from the Browns in the last inning, by the score of 4 to 3. The game was all with the visitors until Boston came to bat for the last time, and then came a whirlwind batting rally, in which three singles, a double and an error netted three runs.

The Browns batted Gibson out of the box in the first inning, and Winter was driven out of the stable. Ferris disposed of Stone's hot one, but Moran Waked. Van Zant singled to center. Koehler smashed one along the right foul line and Moran crossed the plate. As Selbach juggled the ball Koehler went to second and Van ant to third. At this point Gibson was driven out of the box. Jones signaled Winter's advent by singling and scoring Koehler and Van Zant. As Collins made a poor throw to catch the latter at the plate Jones ambled to second. Winter froze the next two, fanning Wallace and causing Gleason to pop to Parent.

In Boston's second Glade was wild and sent Stahl to first by the easy route. Both Stahl and Grimsbaw were safe on Wallace's poor throw to head off the former at second and Grimsbaw's hit. Ferris advanced them with a sacrifice to the pitcher. Criger brought in Stahl with an out to Koehler. Winter was fanned.

There was no more scoring until the ninth when the Champs made their great rally. Stahl and Grimsbaw had been disposed of when the batting matinee started. Ferris planted one in left for a single. Freeman batted for Criger and sent out a safe one. Unglaub batted for Winter and was safe on an error by Jones. With the bases full Selbach singled and Ferris and Freeman scored. Then Parent closed the game with a double, on which Unglaub scored.

Securing New Industries

There are few places of any importance in Vermont the growth of which could not be promoted, if the thinking people therein were to direct their energies toward improvement of existing possibilities. Nature has been lavish in her dispensation of what are known as natural resources throughout Vermont, and these have not been developed as they should have been developed in a great number of cases. Then again there are opportunities for new industries that are not dependent on location merely, and the man or association of men who make two industries flourish where one grew before is a public benefactor.

Burlington has gained not a few industries in previous years through the cooperation of our public spirited citizens with the authorities, and not a little of our prosperity is to be attributed to the growth thus encouraged. Just at present we do not appear to be doing much in this direction, certainly not what we should be doing to secure new industries, but our people are not to be condemned too severely. They may be waiting for the clouds to roll by.—Burlington Free Press.

HARDWICK G.C.N.U. IN CONSPIRACY CHARGE

Case to Be Heard at This Term of Caledonia County Court—Case Grew Out of Sharpening Controversy.

Hardwick, June 9.—The Hardwick Gazette this week says: "One man" granite manufacturing firms. Men who preferred to take small contracts and work them out alone, have engaged in business. Several would join forces and employ a union tool sharpener. For some reason the local union objected to this. The union clearly couldn't go to these men and say "You can't work for yourselves," but they must not work for any man who did not "employ" cutters. This act crippled the one man concerns, and as a result action has been brought and a case goes before the grand jury at the present term of Caledonia county court—State vs. Hardwick Branch, G. C. N. U.—for conspiracy. The outcome will be watched with interest here."

NEW FLAG UP TODAY

Norway Raises Token of Her Independence.

STATE REORGANIZING

King Will Not Receive Norwegian Envoys—London Suggests Matter Should Go to Hague Tribunal.

Christiania, Norway, June 9.—The new Norwegian flag was hoisted throughout the country at 10 a. m. today. Flags over all the fortresses and warships of Norway were saluted with twenty-one guns. The substitution of the new for the old flag at Christiania occurred at Akershus Fort in the presence of the garrison of the capital.

The Council of State, following the action of the Storting in dissolving the union of Norway and Sweden, proclaiming that King Oscar is no longer king of Norway and placing the reins of government in the hands of the Council of State, is proceeding with the reorganization of the government in the manner indicated in the programme which had been more or less prepared before the final step was taken by which Wednesday's peaceful revolution was accomplished. The department of national defense has issued a decree to the army acquainting it with the resolution of the Storting and the resumption of government by the Council of State, and intimating that the army must comply with the new conditions, rendering allegiance to those now conducting the government. Minister of State Loveland has been appointed foreign minister, and the Council of State has decided to separate the foreign office from the departments of commerce, navigation, etc., with which heretofore it has been amalgamated. The Council has also resolved to eliminate the emblems of the union from the war flag of Norway.

OSCAR REFUSES.

"As I do not recognize the revolutionary steps which the Storting, in violation of the constitution and act of union and in revolt against the King, has unfortunately taken, I decline to receive the deputation."

The King is receiving very many telegrams expressing sympathy and devotion from all parts of the kingdom.

The two kings mounted chargers, rode along the line and inspected the troops, followed by the whole cavalcade except the queen's carriage. About 25,000 troops were closely scrutinized by King Alfonso.

Oze thinks the Japanese gunnery was nearly perfect, but their torpedoes were aimed at the Sissoi Veliky, but only one of them was effective. The sinking of the Sissoi Veliky was due to the Japanese shells.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration.

Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nerve brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nerve.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of La Grippe which left me very weak, and in bad condition. I was so nervous I could not sleep. My wife, after trying different remedies, went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nerve, and she brought home a bottle. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. After taking a few doses of Nerve the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am very much improved."

HAD TO STOP SHIP.

Surgical Operation in Case of Seasickness on Majestic.

New York, June 9.—For two hours last Saturday the engines of the steamer Majestic, which arrived yesterday, were at rest, and the big ship lay as quietly as the turbulent seas would permit, while the ship surgeon labored to save the life of Arthur Campbell, a second cabin steward.

Campbell had injured himself so severely during a violent attack of seasickness that the surgeon had decided that a delicate surgical operation must be performed at once. To obviate as much as possible the tossing of the steamer, her engines were stopped during the time required to perform the operation.

Campbell was said to be on the road to recovery when the steamer arrived yesterday.

HALF-MILLION VOLTS IN HIS BODY

Prof. Thomson Demonstrates With a High Frequency Current.

Lynn, Mass., June 9.—To demonstrate how little danger there is in electrical force when properly handled, Prof. Elihu Thomson of this city Wednesday permitted over a half million volts to pass through his body without displaying the slightest tremor or experiencing the slightest physical discomfort from the test. The demonstration was made for the benefit of the members of the Commercial Club of Boston.

Prof. Thomson adjusted a special apparatus to his body and a high frequency current was used. Suddenly there was a flash from the finger tips, and great sparks flew into the air, illuminating two incandescent lights that were held two feet from the fingers.

WILSON TO INVESTIGATE

Cotton Leakage Charge Stirs Up Department.

A RIGID SECRET INQUIRY

The Results May Prove Very Embarrassing—The Secretary's Honor Is in No Way Involved.

Washington, D. C., June 9.—Secretary Richard Cheatham of the Southern Growers' Association has submitted documentary evidence to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson in connection with his allegations of irregularities in the preparation and publication of the government cotton crop report issued last Friday.

Secretary Wilson absolutely declined to discuss the nature of the papers and document submitted by Mr. Cheatham in support of his contention that the figures of the report had been tampered with and the totals given out prior to official publication, but admitted to The Boston Herald correspondent that he had called on the government secret service to make a thorough investigation. Several men are now at work, it is understood, and sensational developments are expected in the course of a day or so.

While, as stated, Secretary Wilson and the other officials of the Agricultural department refused to discuss the Cheatham charges, it is known that the allegations are taken much more seriously since the latter presented his documentary evidence. Five minutes after the papers were in Secretary Wilson's hands he had called on the secret service and the investigation had begun.

WILSON MAY LEAVE CABINET.

Washington Hears Rumor Resulting from Charges of Leak in Cotton Figures.

Washington, June 9.—Secretary Wilson may leave the cabinet as the result of the investigation he has ordered of charges made by Richard Cheatham, secretary of the Southern Cotton association, that there is a leak in cotton figures from some one in the division of statistics.

This is the substance of a report that has gained wide circulation in Washington. Mr. Cheatham's charges were at first taken lightly by Secretary Wilson. Wednesday Mr. Cheatham laid before the secretary letters and affidavits and as a result a rigid investigation by a department expert was ordered.

Not the slightest suspicion rests on Secretary Wilson but if the Cheatham charges prove true, one or more officials in whom the secretary has great confidence is expected to be involved. Such an outcome would be felt by Mr. Wilson as so hard a blow at his administration that it is believed he would retire.

Secretary Taft did not in-dictate when he would make his report to the President.
